

Price Lock Promotion

General Terms and Conditions

To qualify for the Pycon Price Lock promotion you must:

- Select a Pycon home design to build.
- Build a home entirely on a slab.
- Receive an Initial Estimate from Pycon with the $5,000 price lock option included.
- Pay the required preliminary deposit before the Initial Estimate expires.
- Have land that is registered and ready to be built on by 30th June 2022.
- Sign a building contract within 30 days of receiving your quote.

Based on a valid Pycon Initial Estimate, the Pycon Price Lock enables you to lock in / extend the following until 30th June 2022:

- Your selected Pycon home design headline price and
- any other applicable promotion you may have selected.

The Pycon Price Lock excludes costs related to any items not outlined above including site / block conditions, plan changes, variations and upgrades that may be selected.

Where land is not registered and ready to build on by 30th June 2022:

- You may be subject to price increases that apply to your home design from 1st July 2022 until it is registered and ready to build on, and
- entitlement to any other extended promotion is forfeited.

Pycon Homes reserves the right to vary or end this promotion at any time without notice.
